

GEORGIA ELITE CLASSIC INTRODUCES INAUGURAL 'BRAIN BOWL'

Eligible academic standouts from the sophomore, junior and senior classes will make up the two rosters of the Brain Bowl and will square off in the second slot of the seven-game lineup.

TEAM EINSTEIN VS. TEAM HAWKING

Player nominations are now open at GeorgiaEliteClassic.com

Proof of a 3.0 grade-point average and combined two-part (math and reading) SAT score of at least 1,000 and/or an ACT score of at least 22 is required.

HOW TO NOMINATE A PLAYER

Go to GeorgiaEliteClassic.com and click on Brain Bowl or <http://georgieliteclassic.com/brain-bowl/>

An invite will be sent to all who are selected to participate in the 2018 Georgia Elite Classic Brain Bowl.

The selected player package is $395 and includes a two-day stay at the Marriott Galleria, a player pack of goodies, all meals, players party and working under some of the best high school coaching in the state.

Also, the first-annual Brain Bowl is going to be looked at closely by programs in the top academic conferences such as the Patriot (FCS), Ivy (FCS), NESCAC (D-III), Midwest (D-III), Centennial (D-III) and Southern Athletic Association (D-III). The Georgia Elite Classic has been in touch with schools such as Harvard, Princeton, Dartmouth, Holy Cross, Georgetown, Williams, Amherst, Hamilton, Bates, Tufts, University of Chicago, Centre, Rhodes and Johns Hopkins, and coaches from the Division III conferences are expected to come to the game while those from FCS schools are expected to watch the Webcast. Division III coaches will be on hand to talk about their schools to both their players and parents.

For more information, visit our website at GeorgiaEliteClassic.com or I.J. Rosenberg at 404-246-7819 (ijrosenberg@scoreatl.com) or Graham David at 513-600-6557 (gdauid@scoreatl.com).

GEORGIAELITECLASSIC.COM/BRAINBOWL